Capturing Local Landscapes

Artist David Baggarly finds inspiration in New England

Mattapoissett native and local artist David Baggarly thinks there are few places like New England in which to find stunning, exotic subjects to paint.

"New England is very different from other parts of the country," he said. "There are a variety of landscapes — in Mattapoissett especially — from coastal waters to marshy inlets ... along with rivers, boats and lighthouses.

"The sky in New England is also very different from other parts of the country, as the sky conditions change continually which determine how the water looks."

Mr. Baggarly agrees that having grown up in this environment, he has learned to view things with the critical eye of an artist.

"I wouldn't have had the same appreciation of nature had I been raised elsewhere," he said.

It was this unique opportunity which afforded Mr. Baggarly ample opportunity to hone his craft over the years. The 29-year-old — who now resides in Cranston, RI and has worked in everything from watercolors to linoleum-cut printing to mixed media paintings — found early inspiration in the waterfront territories of Marion and Mattapoissett.

His soft-toned watercolor landscapes, in particular, are virtual snapshots of small town life.

"I just drive around and find a place where I can sit and paint," he said of his eye-catching landscapes. "They take between and hour or two to complete. The larger pieces, which take up to two days, I paint from a photo."

His early interest in art began as a student, when he started drawing at a young age. He also credited local schools with allowing him to grow creatively as an artist. "I received a great deal of support from area schools," he said. "No one ever discouraged me and I eventually went on to study art in college."

After receiving his BFA from the Maryland Institute of Art in Baltimore, Mr. Baggarly realized that it was possible to foster a career as a creative artist. He also learned to find subjects which both interested him and brought interest from the general public.

"Living in New England instilled in me a real love of nature and a sense of natural color and lighting," he said. "I always try to capture what I'm passionate about and interested in."

Mr. Baggarly fulfills these passions by creating wonderful seaside landscapes, one of which is featured on the cover of this issue. But he also enjoys experimenting with philosophical ideas and artistic mediums.

"My heart's also into mixed media paintings," he said, showing examples of these works which utilize a combination of wood carvings, acrylic paints and colored paper.

resurrection series dealing with life, death and spiritual issues," he explained. "The series with males and females deal with marriage and relationships — basically the pros and cons or good and bad. But I like using the negative to emphasize the positive."

Although he is happy spending his summers here doing new watercolor landscapes — which haven't been as numerous as he would like with the inclement weather — he eventually would like to expand the scope of his work to reach a wider audience.

"Ideally, I want to have more showings in higher profile galleries," he said. "But I'll never stop doing landscapes and I don't care how 'big' I get with them. I enjoy doing them."

Mr. Baggarly is presently working on an exhibit which he hopes to display at the Marion Art Center. The exhibit will include both his watercolors and mixed media paintings, which have not been widely seen locally.

"I want to show the whole artist instead of just one aspect," he said.

Over the years, he's become more comfortable with working as a full-time artist, something many struggling artists never realize.

"It's been a long, slow road and it takes some perseverance," he said. "But I've been fortunate enough to have a great wife who's both understanding and supportive."

"As far as I'm concerned, the pieces are in place for a great career," he said.

Several of Mr. Baggarly's watercolor works are on display and available for purchase at Roger's Gallery, Route 6 in Mattapoisett.

Before considering regular business for the evening, the board entertained two 7:00 appointments, the first being an appreciation to reporter Will Cannell of The Sentinel, who will be leaving this week for San Francisco, CA. All three members of the board cited Mr. Cannell's fair and accurate coverage of town events during his tenure with the paper.

"I appreciate everything you've done for the board while you were here," Chairman DeCosta said. "You always treated us fairly and. I think you covered the town in a responsible way."

Both Selectman Mahoney and Selectman Lambalot agreed.

"You've done yourself and your paper proud," Mr. Mahoney said. "And I know you'll enjoy San Francisco."

Also scheduled for a 7:00 meeting with the board was resident Charles W. Morgan, who presented the selectmen with a petition to request an article on the upcoming Special Town Meeting warrant to publish an Annual Town Report for the 1991-1992 fiscal year.

"As stockholders in this town, I and many other residents feel we need to have copies of the town report," Mr. Morgan said.

The petition, signed by 100 Mattapoisett residents, requests that monies be appropriated to print and distribute no less than 1,000 copies of the report throughout town. The budget usually allocated for the printing of the report was voted down in this past year's Annual Town Meeting.

According to Selectman Mahoney, the appropriation request will automatically appear on the warrant as an article by petition.

Selectman Mahoney next moved the approval of the minutes of the board's August 1, 1992 meeting, which was seconded by Selectman Lambalot and made unanimous by Chairman DeCosta.

Upon signing payrolls, bills, licenses, permits and outgoing correspondence for the week, Chairman DeCosta next announced scheduled meetings throughout the next week, including:

- September 9, 5:30 pm — Surprise retirement party (name withheld at press time)
- September 10, 9:00 am — Veteran's Meeting in Swansea (Chairman DeCosta will attend)
- September 10 — Executive Secretary's Meeting
- September 13, 9:00 am — Apple Peach Festival Parade, Pope Park, Acushnet
- September 15, 7:00 am - 8:00 pm — Election Day, vote at Old Hammondtown School

The board next discussed incoming correspondence, beginning with a letter of resignation from Peter F. Kortright, who is stepping down from his position on the Finance Committee.

Mr. Kortright cited "family and professional responsibilities" as his reasons for leaving the committee. Chairman DeCosta said he is sorry to see Mr. Kortright resign and understands his other commitments.

The New Bedford Women's Center extended a letter of appreciation to the board for the town's continued support of the Rape Crisis Project with an appropriation at the Annual Town Meeting. According to Acting Executive Director Deborah Herring, the center cited 156 new incidents of sexual assault reported last year, which is up 18 percent from the previous year. Ms. Herring praised the town's "support during this most difficult economic time."

Mattapoisett's Council on Aging (COA) Vice Chair, Virginia Morgan, sent the board the minutes of the COA's August 11, 1992 meeting.

Chairman DeCosta next announced an open invitation to the board to attend the Plymouth County Development Annual Meeting, to take place on September 28 at 11:30 am.

Building Inspector Andrew J. Bobola submitted information to the Board of Selectman regarding the lack of an electrical main disconnect (or master switch) at the town's police station. Mr. Bobola said that the approximate cost of this unit would be $1,500 and at this time he is seeking the board's recommendation as to how to proceed. According to the original plans, the switch should have been installed but never was.

Chairman DeCosta said he would like the Wiring Inspector to also take a look at the schematics and visit the premises to determine the cause of this error. Selectman Mahoney agreed, saying that it may just have been an oversight on someone's part, but one that needed to be rectified.

The board also received a letter from the Department of Environmental Protection (DEP) regarding the town's Water Withdrawal Permit (MGL Chapter 21G) granted c/o Superintendent

The permit, which took effect in 1986, allows the town to withdraw a volume of water subject to certain conditions and stipulations. According to Chairman DeCosta, Mattapoissett is presently allowed to draw up to 420,000 gallons a day — or 153 million gallons a year — to remain within the agreed upon conditions of the permit. These figures are to be adjusted over five-year periods to accommodate for population shifts and/or special projects which require a higher volume of water usage.

The gradual increases will eventually allow the town to draw up to 810,000 gallons per day over the next 20 years.

The existing maximum water limit is in effect until May 31, 1996, when the DEP will reevaluate the permit's guidelines.

"They essentially estimate what the population will be each year and determine what the maximum water usage would be for that time frame," Chairman DeCosta said. "There is no shortage of water at the present time."

Selectman Mahoney agreed. "This is simply a matter of the DEP monitoring our water usage."

A scheduled 7:30 pm hearing with ComElectric was next on the agenda to discuss a proposed conduit location project at North Street and Melissa Anne Lane — which was actually an error on the applicant's part. Selectmen discovered from the project's developer that the street is actually Michelle Lane, not Melissa Anne Lane.

Selectman Mahoney read the request, which asks for permission to disturb the surface of the road in order to replace and repair a lengthy span of wiring both above and below ground. With the aforementioned corrections made, the board unanimously granted the request.

Ms. Adams said she had no report for this week, but did mention that Finance Committee Chairman Joseph Bolton would be on vacation during the next week and the board would have to reschedule another time to meet with him and the FinCom to discuss articles on the upcoming Special Town Meeting warrant.

At 7:43 pm, the board unanimously moved to recess until 8:00 pm, at which time they would reconvene in Executive Session to continue a hearing to consider complaints and charges brought against an officer of the town. There being no further business on the agenda, the board would come out of Executive Session only to adjourn for the evening.

Marion Selectmen's Meeting

September 8, 1992

A meeting of the Marion Board of Selectmen was called to order at 7:10 pm by Chairwoman Loretta B. Schaefer. Present were Selectman James S. Dougall, Selectman Edwin "Ted" Pratt Jr., Executive Secretary Ray E. Pickles, and Secretary Helene Craver.

The meeting began with an appointment with Town Clerk Helen G. Westergard regarding the signing of bank loan notes. The town needs to borrow a total of $800,000 in lieu of anticipated revenue for the fiscal year. Chairwoman Schaefer moved that a loan for $300,000 at an interest rate of 3.09 percent and another for $500,000 at 3.10 percent be taken out with local banks until such time that revenue is collected. The motion was unanimously passed by the board.

At 7:15, the board entertained a request to replace a telephone pole at the intersection of Route 105 and Pinewood Lane. The motion was made and passed unanimously.

Next on the agenda was a meeting with resident Sherman Briggs regarding his interest in filling a position on the Conservation Commission which has been vacant for the past four months.

"I think I could bring a great deal of insight to the position and I'm willing to get involved," Mr. Briggs said when asked why he is interested in serving.

Although Mr. Briggs has been attending commission meetings for some time and is qualified for the position, Selectman Pratt questioned appointing him due to a conflict of interest in his being a contractor.

"One problem the committee has faced from time to time is in mustering a quorum," Mr. Pratt said. "There is a potential for you to repeatedly disqualify yourself because you would have a direct financial interest in some of the outcomes and also there is the possibility that you may disqualify yourself because your competitors might feel that it is a provision of their work."

Because of this potential problem, Selectman Pratt suggested making Mr. Briggs an associate member in the interim to determine if any problems arise during his tenure.

Mr. Pratt urged that more people become involved in general in town government by serving as associate members of the various committees. The only difference from being full members, he said, is in not being able to vote on issues. But there is still ample opportunity for people to offer input and learn the procedures involved, so when a full position becomes available, they will be better prepared.

Selectman Dougall, however, was in favor of Mr. Briggs' appointment to the commission, citing his exemplary record and past experience with conservation issues.

At 7:50 pm, the board met with Lynn Druskat, another resident who is interested in the vacancy on the Conservation Commission. Ms. Druskat, who has been a resident of Marion for the past five years, said her educational background makes her a suitable applicant for the position. Presently, however, she is serving on the Recreation Committee, which would rule her out until her tenure ends in May, 1993.

Despite this, Selectman Pratt said he would recommend appointing Ms. Druskat to the commission, since she has no other conflicts of interest in serving on the board.

Since there were several issues to consider before making a final decision on the matter, the board agreed to table their final recommendation and appointment until next week.

Chairwoman Schaefer next went over incoming correspondence for the week, beginning with a letter from June Lina Schultz, President of the Marion Mother's Club. Ms. Schultz wrote to request use of the Marion Island Wharf field for a craft fair fundraiser to be held on either Saturday, May 8, 1993 or Saturday, May 22, with a possible raindate of May 23. The board agreed to approve use of the area for either date.

Town Counsel Thomas P. Crotty offered advice at the request of the board as to whether police officer Jonathan Dickerson would be in violation of state Conflict of Interest Law (General Laws, Chapter 268A) if he were to be appointed chairman of the town's Recreation Commission.

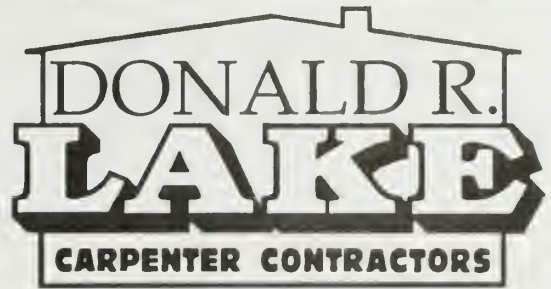

According to Mr. Crotty, Officer Dickerson can apply for exception to the general laws since as a Recreation Committee member he would not directly participate or have responsibility for Police Department activities.

The board received a press release from the Marion/Mattapoisett/Rochester Housing Co-Op, Inc. concerning a $5,000 grant from a Boston charitable foundation. The grant is to be used for general support of the Co-Op, according to President Lee Craver.

Any other area residents and/or businesses who would like to donate to the Co-Op are urged to do so and can contact President Lee Craver by writing to him c/o the Marion/Mattapoisett/Rochester Housing Co-Op, Inc., P.O. Box 779, Marion, MA 02378.

Upper Cape Cod Regional Vocational-Technical School Superintendent-Director David P. Sampson sent correspondence to the board regarding a meeting of the school committee on August 26 to re-certify its budget at a level consistent with funding appropriated by two-thirds of area communities. The New Bedford Women's Center sent a letter of appreciation to the board regarding their appropriation to the efforts of the Rape Crisis Project at the Annual Town Meeting. Citing "156 new incidents of sexual assault last year, up 18 percent from the previous year," Acting Executive Director Deborah Herring said the contribution is greatly appreciated, especially in these hard economic times.

Two final notices were sent to the Board of Selectmen regarding work and repairs being done at McManus pier and Wienberg pier.

Marion Board of Health

September 8, 1992

At 8:57 pm, Chairwoman Schaefer adjourned the Board of Selectmen to reconvene as the Board of Health, whereby Chairman Pratt began with incoming correspondence.

A draft memo from the Board was first up on the agenda, concerning the septic system repair application process.

According to the memo, many repairs end up requiring variances and often face unique problems. In order to expedite the process, the board would like to schedule pre-application conferences with the engineer, the sanitarian and a board member so that the engineers may be able to submit a design with the actual application. This should decrease delays in the application process.

Another memo was sent to the board from Executive Secretary Ray E. Pickles regarding saltwater fecal coliform testing. According to Mr. Pickles, the Department of Public Works has suspended saltwater fecal coliform testing at saltwater beaches and will resume one week prior to Memorial Day, 1993. The biweekly testing is done only during swimming season to deem the beaches safe for public bathing.

There being no further business, the board unanimously moved to adjourn for the evening at 9:03 pm.

representing New England Telephone and the Commonwealth Electric (ComElectric) Company, explained that the pushbrace "is not doing the job" anymore. Rather than providing a counterbalance for the pole, the pushbrace has been pulling the pole out of the ground. He believes that the new pole will balance the older one more effectively and will be safer.

The selectmen agreed that they would consider Edward J. Ritter's application for an earth removal permit when Mr. Ritter provides additional paperwork, including his passbook, so the selectmen can make an informed decision.

Selectman Brown wanted it to be known that he signed a Department of Education and Training voucher for $146 "with regrets." He expressed his concern that an employee could collect unemployment after having worked a very short time.

Reserve Police Officer James Wassmouth will be attending the Police Academy in Barnstable full-time, and at his own expense. Selectmen granted permission to Officer Wassmouth to attend, and signed the necessary release and waiver. Officer Wassmouth has been attending the Academy part-time and was recently advised that the Academy had an opening for a full-time student. Out of consideration for budget cutbacks, he has offered to attend the Academy at his own expense. He starts classes in October.

The next order of business was a joint meeting with the Finance Committee (FinCom). Selectmen and members of the committee expressed the importance of passing the override vote at the Special Town Meeting on September 30.

In the event that the General Operation override might not pass, Selectmen and the Finance Committee agreed on a proposal that would cut $65,000 from line items on the FY 1993 budget so that the budget would balance.

There is no money to work with in the Reserve Fund. Even with a $45,000 debt reduction at Memorial School which has already been figured into the tax structure, the school would see the greatest cut of all, at $5,000.

Among other departments that would experience cuts under this proposal would be the Treasurer's office, the Assessor's Office, the Law Enforcement Division, the Fire Department, the Tree Warden, the Board of Health, the Highway Department, Veterans Administration, and the Council on Aging.

FinCom Chairwoman Patricia Ryan said that if townspeople do not vote for the override, "the money has to come from somewhere. We will just sit there until we balance the budget. We need a balanced budget to set the tax rate."

Ms. Ryan said that the $225,000 just certified by the state as free cash should not be used now, but in FY 1994. "We have to get back in the right year," she said.

Another last-minute proposal was made to not print and distribute an Annual Town Report for Fiscal Year 1992-1993, which would save another estimated $3,000, giving them the money they needed.

The board plans to continue discussions on the forthcoming Special Town Meeting next week.

An Open Letter to Rochester Residents

Rochester's Financial Condition Bleak

The Town of Rochester, like many communities throughout the Commonwealth, faces a severe financial crisis this year. The town's Finance Committee, Board of Selectmen and Department heads have put their heads together to resolve the problems facing our community.

We, collectively, do not relish proposing any tax increases during these trying times.

However, the town must continue to operate and the education of our children must be assured. Protection of our person and property must be guaranteed. Just to maintain our present services, will of necessity, require us to vote an override of Proposition 2 1/2.

Our assessors cannot set a tax rate until such time as we have a "balanced budget" for fiscal year 1993. We cannot balance the budget unless one of two events take place. We must cut several services drastically or completely.

Examples of cuts would be the elimination of household rubbish collection ($27,600), not funding one proposed full-time Police Officer ($15,000), eliminating one Highway Department employee ($10,000), reducing the Memorial School budget ($47,000), not fund the New Bedford Women's Center Rape-Crisis Project ($1,000), not fund the ORR renovation program ($19,854), and make additional cuts from all areas ($65,000) for a total of $165,600.

It will be necessary to transfer from available funds (free cash) and revise estimated receipts to meet the ($288,000) current deficit.

Elimination of rubbish collection will require households to contract for individual service (cost $9.50 per month or $114 per year). Current cost per household ($2.16 per month, $27.10 per year).

Cutting back police protection late evening hours on weekend will reduce our protection from drivers under the influence. Postponing our efforts to have full-time Police Officers to provide double coverage during those late evening hours will require that an officer in trouble will have to depend on a neighboring community for assistance.

Cutting one Highway Department employee leaves the department with the Highway Surveyor and one and one-half workers. With 64 miles of roadway to be maintained, this becomes an enormous task.

The Old Rochester Regional High School (ORR) is in dire need of repair. Regardless of the reasons for the current condition, the work must be performed now or the cost at a later date will be doubled or tripled. At the present time interest rates are at the lowest point in the last 29 years! Contracts are being bid several thousand dollars under estimated costs.

If you do not repair that small leak in your roof now, you will replace ceilings and structural timbers later on. This applies to your regional school as well.

The alternative to all of the above is to vote "YES" on September 30 for the amounts being cut from the budgets. The increase in your taxes for your home will be less than the ultimate cost to you if the override fails. In addition, without rubbish collection we know that our roadsides and wood roads will be the dumping place for rubbish at an additional cost to your town to dispose of. Since we have had double police patrols on the day shift, household breaks have reduced drastically. Our newly-elected Highway Surveyor in a few short months has done a tremendous job. Give him the funds to continue the good work.

Wedding Anniversary

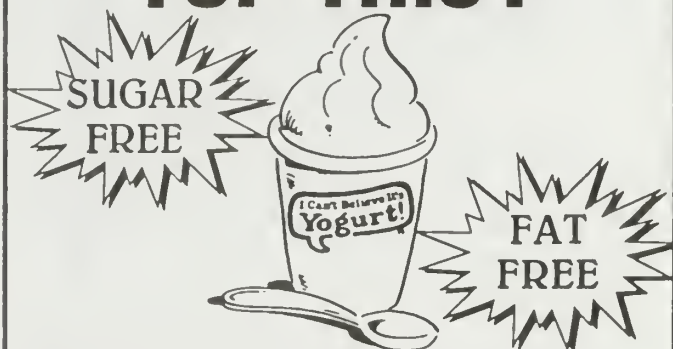

Dr. and Mrs. Charles H. Martin of Mattapoisett celebrated their 50th wedding anniversary September 8 with a dinner at Hell's Blazes in Middleboro. Dr. Martin and the former Priscilla Preston were married September 10, 1942.

Joining them in celebration were their two daughters, Sharon (Mrs. Bennett B. Schneider) and Pamela (Mrs. Brent F. Spooner) and their husbands, all of Mattapoisett. Also attending were Roger and Kate Lamson of Sutton, New Hampshire and Mattapoisett.

Mattapoisett Lions Club

Those who attended the Couples Outing on August 23 aboard the Bay Queen had a fantastic evening. The jury is in and the results were outstanding in King Lion Shep's favor. The weather cooperated and those in attendance feasted on a great buffet and danced to two bands. Everyone appeared to have a good time.

Magazine Drive

Bishop Stang High School is once again off to a dynamic start with its major student fundraiser of the year, a Magazine Drive under the auspices of NASGO 21. The motto of the student body and development office at Stang, SOS—Save our Subscriptions, is meant to remind our neighbors to renew their subscriptions through a Stang student. Any local alums who wish to renew or would like to order new subscriptions may call the Development Office at Stang for order forms. You can help your Alma Mater by renewing or ordering through Stang.

As 45% of the subscription price is retained by Bishop Stang, the school stands to earn a substantial amount toward subsidizing the cost of educating each student. The Stang students offer the subscriptions at the lowest rate available to you. Please respond favorably over the next two weeks as your Stang friends and neighbors call upon you to renew your current subscriptions or subscribe to new magazines through Bishop Stang.

Thank you for your support of our students. Questions may be directed to the Development Office at Bishop Stang at 993-8959.
Open House

Bishop Stang High School will be holding an Open House for all parents of current Stang students on Tuesday, September 15 at 7:00 p.m. The evening will commence with a welcome from Mrs. Theresa Dougall, principal. Parents will then have an opportunity to follow their son's/daughter's schedule and meet his/her teachers. Course expectations will be explained to the parents.

This is not a time for individual parent/teacher conferences. Tuesday, October 20 is the evening scheduled for individual conferences. There will be time for informal conversations with administration and guidance counselors. All Bishop Stang parents are strongly encouraged to attend the Open House on September 15.

VA Drops Interest Rate on Home Loans/Encourages Veterans to Refinance:

The Department of Veterans Affairs (VA) has reduced its maximum home loan interest rate from 8 to 7.5 percent, effective August 12. This is the lowest the VA rate has been in 19 years, and the second time in less than two months that the rate has been lowered.

In announcing the reduction, VA Secretary Edward J. Derwinski said, "The drop in the rate will mean more veterans will qualify for home loans, which will have the practical effect of stimulating the economy and boosting the housing industry. It also means that many veterans can take advantage of the lower rate and refinance their existing loans at a great saving.

One year ago, the interest rate on VA-guaranteed home loans was 9.5 percent. The decline to 7.5 percent means that the monthly payment of a typical VA loan of $86,000 has decreased by $121.26 — from $723.26 to $602.00.

Also effective August 12, VA decreased by one half percentage point the maximum rates for graduated payment mortgages to 7.75 percent, home improvement loans to 9 percent, manufactured home loans to 10 percent, manufactured home lot-only loans to 9.5

percent, and manufactured home and lot loans to 9.5 percent.

The lower rate also is good news for veterans interested in refinancing their existing mortgage loans. Recently, more than 33,000 veterans have refinanced their loans to take advantage of lower interest rates, and there are still more than 1.5 million veterans with VA-guaranteed loans with interest rates of 9.5 percent or higher. If those veterans took advantage of current rates, they could realize significant savings. Veterans are encouraged to contact a private lending agency for more information on VA refinancing loans, or call the Providence Regional Office at 273-4910 or toll free 1-800-827-0389.

American Cancer Society

Quit - Smoking Program Offered:

If you've tried to quit smoking before but were unsuccessful, the American Cancer Society will try to make it easier for you to quit for good, starting September 16.

This is when the first of five sessions of Freshstart, the American Cancer Society's smoking cessation program, will be held, according to Fran Fuller, Public Education Chair of the Greater New Bedford Unit of the American Cancer Society. The one hour sessions will take place at the Seaport Inn at 110 Middle Street in Fairhaven over a four-week period.

"The focus of Freshstart is preparing the participants to remain smoke-free over the long term," Ms. Fuller said, "They get practical advice on how to avoid returning to cigarettes once they've made the decision to quit. They'll also learn how to best deal with nicotine addiction, which, as the Surgeon General has shown us, is no small task".

She said that participants will learn relaxation techniques to help them get through the stressful time of quitting. Tips on eating right to maintain a healthy body weight will also be presented, she added.

Preregistration is required for the workshop, which will have between eight and fifteen participants. The fee for participation is $40. To register send a $20 deposit to Karon Allen at 819 Tucker Road in North Dartmouth, MA 02747. Checks should be made payable to the American Cancer Society.

Ms. Fuller said that group discussions will address the participants' behavior, feelings, and thoughts. "It will help them discover their own motivations for smoking, and see which method of quitting will be best for them," she said. "Between the second and third session, which are two days apart, participants will go cold turkey," she added.

"Smoking accounts for 83 percent of the lung cancer deaths in the nation," Ms. Fuller said. "But after a person quits, the lung tissue immediately begins to repair itself." By quitting smoking, she said that you can not only lower your risk of developing cancer, but also enjoy better general health and physical ability.

"There is still room for more people in this program," Ms. Fuller said. "Anyone who wishes to join should register as soon as possible."

More information is available by calling Karon Allen at 996-3432.

Friends of the Dartmouth Library

A record number of area artists took part in the outdoor show and sale on the grounds of Southworth Library, So. Dartmouth, on August 22, including exhibitors from regional communities -Taunton, Middleboro, Fall River, and Tiverton RI, to name but a few.

Forty-five men, women and young people, all artists specializing in various techniques and media, including photography, set up their work on the shaded lawn under a picture-perfect sky for the notable annual event that is sponsored by Friends of the Dartmouth Libraries.

The exhibit was organized and managed by the talented Ms. Susan Cabral, So. Dartmouth artist and teacher of painting. A panel of three judges, appraising and deliberating for nearly three hours, - an indication of the difficulty experienced in choosing the relative best among so many deserving recognition, - awarded ribbons to artists for their entries in the following categories: Oils & Acrylics: 1) David Blais; 2) Jeanne Cassidy; 3) Joe White - Water Colors: 1) Christine Bean; 2) Paul Vein; 3) Cindy Rocha (of Swansea) - Photography: 1) Gail Sleeman; 2) Roz Lincoln; 3) Juliette Kirkwood - Mixed Media: 1) Judy Tripp; 2) Ruth Edwards; 3) Marie Kaspar (of Middleboro). Work of the young exhibitors, some of whom study with Ms. Cabral, was also appraised and commended by the show judges. They awarded ribbons to Evan Tatelbaum, first; Hans Bendiksen, second; and Kailene Souza, third.

The distinguished panel of artists who judged the works are themselves well-known exhibitors and professionals. They are 1) Ruth Atkinson, alumna of the Swain School of Art, a board member of the Friends organization and semi-retired from a long and successful career as a decorator; 2) Nancy Coykendall, who earned her B.F.A. degree in painting at the Rhode Island School of Design, later studied at the Art Students' League in New York and is now listed with the prestigious Portraits, Inc. of that city; 3) Joan Crocker, who studied at the Museum of Fine arts School of Practical Art as well as at the Vesper George School of Art and at Eliot O'Hara's Studio. All three artists/judges are residents in So. Dartmouth.

Ladies of the board of directors of the Friends group added greatly to the enjoyment of spectators and artists as well with the serving, gratis, of home-made cookies and chilled lemonade to counter the physical effects of the very warm sunshine. A titling of show sales benefited the non-profit organization; it uses proceeds to support many of the library system's projects. Artists or collectors who wish to be put on the mailing list for the August 1993 show and sale may write to the Friends at P.O. box 11, Dartmouth MA 02714.

The annual fall sale of used books, the main fund-raiser for the libraries, will this year be scheduled for September 24 - 26 at Southworth. Donations of books by the generous citizenry will be gratefully received in the interim. They may be dropped off at Southworth, on the lower level, or donors may phone 636-2215 for home pick-up.

Zeiterion Theater

Leisure Matinees

New Bedford's Zeiterion Theater announces a new series - Leisure Matinees featuring Jazz, popular American tunes, Gospel, and Songs of the 30's and 40's beginning in September.

The series will open with The New Black Eagle Jazz Band on Tuesday, September 24; followed by Richard Lalli, singer and Gary Chapman, pianist performing the popular American tunes of Harold Arlen on Tuesday, November 10; continuing with the Stardust Vocal Trio singing a review of the 30's and 40's on Thursday, January 14; followed by the Vernon Jones Gospel Singers on Thursday, March 18; and concluding with the Amherst Saxophone Quartet on Tuesday, May 4. Tickets are now on sale.

The New Black Eagles draw their repertoire from the entire spectrum of New Orleans music, from the hot classics of the 20's to the Preservation Hall standards. Their exhilarating style has propelled them to the forefront of the traditional jazz scene. The key ingredient in all of the Black Eagles' music is its soulful quality. Relying on a powerful sense of dynamics, dramatic ensemble interplay and driving rhythm, the band ranges over the entire emotional spectrum from hushed intimacy to brawling uproariousness, with stops at every point in between. The New York Times described the Black Eagles as, "So far ahead of other traditional bands ... there is scarcely any basis for comparison."

"Lalli has a rich baritone voice ... his dignified but relaxed stage presence, the ease with which he uses his fine natural instrument, and his complete lack of pretension combine to make him a rewarding and entertaining performer," reviewed the New Haven Register of

New Haven, CT. Richard Lalli, baritone and Gary Chapman, pianist will play those favorite American songs of Harold Arlen including "I've Got the World on a String," "Stormy Weather," "Night after Night," "That Old Black Magic," "One for My Baby," and "Accentuate the Positive."

Double Feature

New Bedford's Zeiterion Theater invites kids and their families to its 10th birthday celebration with a double feature of "From Bones to Bunraku" and "The Story of Jumping Mouse" presented by the nationally-acclaimed company, Das Puppenspiel Puppet Theater on Saturday, September 26 at 1:00 pm. Tickets are now on sale.

Das Puppenspiel will takes it audience on a charming and captivating adventure in these two special tales. The first show, "From Bones to Bunraku," includes a magical cast of characters from the English hand puppet to the French marionette, from the Indonesian shadow puppet to the famous Punch and Judy, and the eloquent Japanese 'bunraku.' Whimsical as well as dramatic, "From Bones to Bunraku" educates children about the art of puppetry in a playful manner.

In its newest production, "The Story of Jumping Mouse," Das Puppenspiel has adapted a Native American tale which tells the story of a mouse who sets off on a journey to learn more about himself and the world. Along the way, Jumping Mouse meets many creatures including Magic Frog, Old Mouse, Buffalo, and Wolf. His new friends teach him how to give up his 'mouse ways' of seeing things in his quest to arrive at the Sacred Mountains.

Hailing from New York, Das Puppenspiel is one of only three puppet theaters in the United States to receive recognition and support from the Theater Program of the National Endowment for the Arts. Das Puppenspiel has also received a Citation of Excellence from the International Puppetry Organization.

All seats are $7.50. Group rates are available. Individual tickets are available at the Zeiterion Box Office. To charge tickets over the phone, call Ticketmaster at 1-931-2000. Individual tickets are also available at any Ticketmaster "cash only" outlet. For

Mattapoisett Congregational Church

Our world revolves around children, even if there are none in our household. It seems as though everything starts to heat up in September, when the yellow buses start rolling down our streets. It is the same for our churches, with our education programs beginning again. As we look not only at Sunday School registration, Youth Fellowship and the Adult Bible Study Group, we have to consider what our mission is to certain individuals in the church and the wider community. The sermon will focus on our obligations to the children in our midst. They are a joy, and we smile when we see them in our place of worship as well as on the streets of our town. They are more than just cute; they are a reminder of our calling to nurture others in a loving and principled fashion. The title of the sermon will be, "What Do We Owe Our Children?" Our worship service begins at 10:00 am and all are welcome! Sunday School Rally Day

The Mattapoisett Congregational Church will be holding registration and the first day of class for its Sunday School on Sunday, September 13 from 9:30 - 10:00 am in the Parish Hall.

All children from age 3 to Grade 8 are welcome to enroll. Children from grade one on up attend church for the first twenty minutes. They are then dismissed to go to their individual classes and dismissed at 11:15 to join their parents at Coffee Hour for refreshments.

There is also nursery care available for infants to age two during the 10:00 - 11:00 worship service.

A one-year Confirmation Program is held for students in Grade 9 culminating in Confirmation in April.

The Video Review

By Rob Gonsalves

White Men Can't Jump (R) — The script is 101 varieties of "Yo' mama" put-downs, and that's almost enough to carry Ron Shelton's attempt to do for outdoor basketball what he did for minor-league baseball in Bull Durham. The young hoop-hustler heroes, Wesley Snipes and Woody Harrelson, make the movie worth a look. But Shelton has to show that these guys are overgrown boys who need to grow up. That worked in Bull Durham, but it doesn't quite come off here, because basketball is virtually all escapist energy and resists any moralizing imposed by the director. The story feels thin and didactic, and the heroes' ladies — meant to be the voices of reason — come across as nags. B-

Freejack (R) — Emilio Estevez is a stock-car racer who gets plucked from a potentially fatal crash and transported to 2009, where he is to be used as a host body for the soul of dying millionaire Anthony Hopkins. Dissatisfied with this plan, Estevez runs, runs, and runs some more, with mercenary Mick Jagger on his trail. Based glancingly on Robert Sheckley's novella "Immortality Inc.," the film is a well-paced time-waster for a slow Saturday night, but given its heady premise and its superb production design, it could have been a lot more. B-

These and many more fascinating places will be visited, including the 1759 Long Plain Friends Meetinghouse (Quaker), the only Acushnet building on the National Register of Historic Places, and the charming Long Plain Museum (1875).

Tickets are $5.00 for adults and $3.00 for children and include a free membership to the two commission buildings.

painted magazine covers for Yachting, Motorboating, Open Road for Boys, and others as well as illustrations for Associated Press, Houghton Mifflin, and other publishers.

A member of the American Society of Marine Artists, his paintings depict ships of all sorts; aircraft carriers, submarines, schooners, and tall ships including the Coast Guard Eagle and the famous Danmark. His works have hung in museums on both coasts, and he is represented in many corporate and private collections.

An honor graduate of the Vesper George Art School in Massachusetts, he went on to positions as Art Director for Purnell Company in Boston, Advertising Manager of the Simplex Time Recorder Company, Art Director for the Meyercord Company of New York, the Associated Press, and 10 years with the Boeing Company in Seattle from which he retired in 1988. His love of the natural beauty around him such as the ocean, lakes, mountains and trees of the Pacific Northwest contribute heavily to his work.

Wherever he lives, Mr. Waite paints the subjects of that environment and captures the feeling of that specific area. His keen attention to details helps him to understand how things go together. This knowledge allows him to know what to leave out of his paintings in order to be spontaneous without losing accuracy of detail.

Library Friends Plan MFA Bus Trip

Experience the inspiration of Italy with the Friends of the Wareham Free Library. A bus trip to the Museum of Fine Arts is planned for Saturday, October 17 to see the special exhibit called "The Lure of Italy: American Artists and the Italian Experience, 1760-1914."

This exhibit examines what Italy meant to American artists in terms of style and subject matter; where Americans traveled in Italy and why; and parallels with American literary themes. Featured masterpieces include landscapes by Thomas Cole and George Inness, neoclassical sculpture by Hiram Powers, and paintings of Venice by John Singer Sargent and Maurice Prendergast. Two related exhibitions are "Campagna Romana; Photographs by Joel Sternfeld" and "The Grand Tour."

Tickets for the trip are $15.00 per person, which includes round-trip bus fare, Museum admission, and a year's membership to the Friends of the Library. The bus leaves the Library parking lot at 9:00 am sharp and will return to the library at approximately 4:00 pm. Lunch may be brought or purchased at the Museum cafeteria.

Please call the Library at 295-2343 to make a reservation. Seating is limited to 40 and will be on a first-come, first-serve basis. Checks should be made payable to Friends of the Library and may be sent to 59 Marion Road, Wareham 02571.

This is one of a series of programs and events sponsored by the Friends. Meetings are held the fourth Wednesday of every month at 7:00 pm in the Library's conference room. New members are welcome.

An aardvark in every issue.

The Great Aardvark Hunt!

Many people have asked what the Great Aardvark Hunt is all about. Each week we hide an aardvark (pictured here) somewhere in the issue. There are no prizes (yet) for finding it, but in future issues there just may be! So stay tuned. And now that we're all getting warmed up the aardvark is going to get harder and harder to find!

Last week's aardvark was hidden:

- in the lower left hand corner of the back cover, just below the Seaport Pharmacy logo.
